

Main Idea Pyramid Organizer

The diagram is a pyramid-shaped graphic organizer. It consists of three levels of boxes. The top level is a single wide box. The middle level is a single wide box that is narrower than the top one. The bottom level is a large box divided into four equal-width columns. Each of these four columns is further divided into three equal-height rows, creating a total of 12 small rectangular cells for notes.